  - A. Overview of Next Economy Capital Regional Prosperity Plan

You may have heard about it, but what is it and why is it important? The Sacramento Region (Placer County included) have joined together to pursue a competitive and strategic economic development agenda to bring about resiliency, vitality and a wide range of new opportunities for job creation, innovation and increased investment in a plan called the Next Economy. The Plan contains five overarching goals, 14 objectives, 68 strategies and 292 actions and has been adopted by five counties, 15 cities and two workforce investment boards so far as their "economic game plan." economy. It's development involved intensive research and the involvement of over 200 groups and over 1,000 people from business, government, education and community organizations over 18 months. Valley Vision, is a partnership with the Sacramento Metro Chamber of Commerce, the Sacramento Area Technology Alliance and the Sacramento Area Commerce and Trade Organization. Please join us as Bill Mueller, CEO and Managing Partner of Valley Vision shares an overview of this Plan and answers questions most important to you.
